From: Financial Times Briefing <FT@emailbriefings.ft.com>
To: ehbarak1@gmail.com
CC:
Date: Fri, 10/24/2014 8:29:44 AM
Subject: In today's FT: US accuses allies ofbuying Isis oil, EU tells Brita...

To view this email as a webpage, click here

Friday October 24 2014

UK HOMEPAGE

US accuses allies of buying Isis oil

US Treasury accuses allies of buying smuggled oil and helping fund Islamist group

EU tells Britain to pay extra €2.1bn

Better-performing economy leads to bigger slice for Brussels

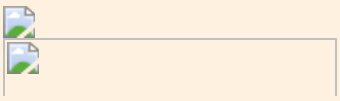
New York doctor tests positive for Ebola

33-year-old man recently returned from west Africa

VIDEO

Tough times for Tesco

Tesco shares fell another 6 per cent after the supermarket chain announced a profit fall of more than 90 per cent and a near 5 per cent dip in like-for-like sales. Lex's Robert Armstrong and Oliver Ralph discuss the many remaining unknowns and the few knowns about Tesco's turmoil.



US HOMEPAGE

Amazon shares tumble as losses blow out

Ecommerce group promises 'selective' spending after $437m loss

Microsoft withstands shift to the cloud

Revenue and earnings ahead of Wall Street's expectations

Airbnb valued at $13bn with staff sale

Ranked among Silicon Valley's most valuable private companies

EUROPE HOMEPAGE

EU agrees target to cut gas emissions

Leaders overcome resistance from eastern member states

Canadian PM faces pressure over radicals

Harper pushes for greater surveillance powers as attacks stoke debate over nation's role in world

Nato flexes muscles in Baltics

More jets are patrolling the skies following dozens of Russian provocations

ASIA HOMEPAGE

HSBC employees in NY allege retaliation

Plaintiffs claim they suffered after reporting harassment of colleague

Thirty-one banks prepare for Fed tests

Rise in oil price and US jobless rate among stress scenarios for 2015

Embraer encounters Chinese turbulence

Beijing's spending crackdown is hitting the Brazilian group's successful business jet arm

WORLD NEWS

Spain's recovery boosts labour market

Unemployment falls to new low, but analysts fear country may yet succumb to eurozone slowdown

Rousseff faces scrutiny over economy

Critics hold PT's policies responsible for Brazil's slowdown

Battle revives Kurds' nationalist ambitions

Defence of Kobani has become a rallying call for stateless Kurds

Industry response to Ebola quickens

Drugmakers to be offered indemnity for new vaccine

Zakharchenko stumps for votes in Donetsk

Leader of pro-Russia rebellion seeks mandate in contest lacking credible rivals

COMPANIES NEWS

América Móvil's profits tumble

Mexican telecoms group under pressure over antitrust rules

Janus Capital warns of higher pay costs

Bill Gross's arrival called a 'game changer'

Caterpillar upbeat on growth prospects

Heavy equipment maker's optimism based on change of tack in developed economies

Tesco waits before setting out stall

Supermarket group lays bare scale of probe into accounting scandal but keeps quiet on strategy

Uber's rise casts shadow over Addison Lee

London's largest private car hire group is coming under pressure from the US taxi app

MARKETS

Stocks gain on earnings and growth hopes

Bond yields and commodity prices rise

Europe gas demand to stay weak, says IEA

Watchdog's economist casts doubt on ability to diversify energy supplies

Rouble tumbles to new dollar lows

Currency's decline follows Rosneft request for more than Rbs2tn of state cash

Record outflows from Europe-focused ETFs

US investors have pulled nearly $3bn from US-listed European equity ETFs so far this month

Ladbrokes sinks on worries over profits

FTSE 100 rises for third consecutive session

COMMENT

Forces set to overturn Britain's order

Panic has driven Cameron into a bidding war about the EU and immigrants

Jingle that sounds the road to recovery

It sometimes pays to wipe the debt slate clean rather than sweep problems under the carpet

A chance for Islam to unite against Isis

A lack of central authority opens the door to a charismatic leader, writes Hossein Mousavian

Blame Germany for the right reasons

The case for running a deficit to stimulate the economy is flimsy, writes Otmar Issing

Man-made idols who cannot plead the law

Sport must decide if conduct that results in a loss of liberty should also merit a loss of career

MANAGEMENT

Three generations in one office

How do millennial, Generation X and baby-boomer colleagues feel about their jobs?

Can we give kisses a miss in finance?

Pecks on the cheek are surprisingly rife in the City

Apple Pay: revolution at the tills

Apple's digital payment service may succeed where other mobile wallets have failed

Manage email | Forward this email
Feedback | Manage portfolio
Subscribe to the FT

Follow the FT

Unsubscribe | My Account | RSS | Privacy Policy | About Us | Help

© THE FINANCIAL TIMES LTD 2014

You have received this email because you have signed up from the NBE preference page.

This email was sent by a company owned by Pearson plc, registered office at 80 Strand, London WC2R 0RL.

Registered in England and Wales with company number 53723.